Due to technical difficulties beyond our control, a graduation day picture of Terri was not available.

“MY BEYOND TIME” was said. BENEDICTION was sung by the singer.

The words of the song “Closing Prayer” remind us that even though we’re ending this part of our lives, the memories will live on us forever.

FROM THE EDITOR

Last Will and Testament

I Penny Palmer, retiring editor of the Warrior, hereby will and bequeath my title to my successor and good friend Marlo Abdoo. Hereafter she will control the infamous staff and therefore must perform certain duties and also receive several privileges.

Due to the acquisition of this prominent title, she will undertake many tasks leading towards the end result of a fabulous yearbook. Following is a partial list of the major responsibilities of a yearbook editor:

1. Working many hours with Clark Stein, the yearbook representative, whose creative mind and willingness to help will be a tremendous asset.
2. Laboring three times as many hours with Mrs. McNutt whose aid and knowledge will be invaluable.
3. Assisting photographers from Abey Studios in their quest for the perfect picture.
4. Selling ads to all the odd, out-of-the-way places that no one has ever heard of.
5. Creating intriguing designs for all twenty-four pages of the senior section, five introductory pages, ten division pages, three pages of graduation, along with any other pages that need to be done immediately.
6. Checking and re-checking and proofreading and checking again all pages done by the staff.

Although the aforementioned seems like an immense amount of work for one person to handle, there exist some privileges that make the position more appealing. The editor will have the use of the executive lounge, her very own shelf to make as messy as desired, the privilege to supervise the training of concession stand workers, and a terrific excuse for loitering in the halls—"Annual Staff business."

Signed

Penny
"85" Editor
Lots of Luck, Marlo!

Thanks to everyone who helped to make this Silver Anniversary edition the best it could be.
